NINETEEN HUNDRED FORTY

Foreword

To preserve forever the hopes and aspirations, the joys and fears; and the memories of our friendships in Longview High School is the purpose of the 1940 Lobo.

Dedication

Among those of our high school who guide our intellects, watch over our welfare and influence our destiny, there stands one who for eighteen years has most competently and faithfully served the students of Longview High, one who is loved and respected by all who know him. » In token of our love and appreciation, this 1940 Lobo is dedicated to Mr. C. N. Wilkinson.

NEWS FLASHES FROM STATION LHS

MARCH 1st, 1950

Mrs. Freddie Seldon, formerly Margaret A. Hall, announces the opening of her exclusive fur shop on the corner of Tyler and Fredonia.

Mr. Junior (Sugarfoot) Dunaway, football coach at A. & M., has gone to Dallas to attend a coaches' banquet.

Miss Lois Cobb has just received a position as personal secretary to the Governor of Texas.

Mr. Jack Peters, the successful architect, has just returned from a trip to Europe.

Miss Evelyn Bivins and Mrs. Richard Henderson, formerly Miss Elizabeth McHaney, have been appointed to take the places of Miss Hughes and Mr. Osburn as teachers of history.

Helen Wilson and Louise Smith, who have played in many successful hits on Broadway, are now back home visiting their parents.

Ernestine Wilson has taken over the Longview Lens and intends to make it a larger paper.

Jacquelyn Hurst and Doris Ann Dean, members of the D. A. R., have just recently returned from a trip of inspection of the different D. A. R. chapters.

Misses Charlotte Corban and Mildred Smith are planning a bridge tournament in order to raise money for a bigger and better Women's Federated Club Building.

Ray Tatum and James Taylor are to be featured comedians in the Lions' Jollies, and Stuart (Port Arthur) Winstead the featured dancer.

Jack Smaha, the L. H. S. band director, announces that the band will take a good will trip to Palestine tomorrow.

A very lovely shower was given at the home of Miss Geraldine Phillips, honoring Mary Freudiger, whose approaching marriage with Leon Brown will take place in June.

Wanted—Credit given in primping. Courses should be in curl-twirling, roughing and manicuring. Dorothea Connally, Betsy Chaffin, and Shirley Burdine.

Wanted—A beautiful, young and efficient wife. None except excellent cooks and expert stenographers need apply. For try-outs call Mr. Wilson.

Open for Engagements—Miss Brannon's choral club, which has become known far and wide as a howling success. Numbers arranged to suit audiences.

For Sale—One slightly bent Dodge. Tests have proved that it is perfectly safe for children to drive. Terms arranged to suit buyer. Floyd Rumbaugh.

Wanted—Acid-proof trousers. Must be completely acid-resisting both front and back. Don't suggest an apron unless there are two wide ones for sale cheap. Charles Skidmore.

Wanted—Without delay, some expert to do delicate and lasting repair work on my brain cells. All work must be kept an absolute secret. John Holland.

Silence Exterminated—Hot air method of unceasingly tested efficiency. Never a dissatisfied customer. Listen for Mary Lou Harris at any time when she is not asleep.

Wanted—A brace to hold up my big nose and a pin to deflate my big head. Will also consider at any price a desk with a seat long enough for a bed. Billy Huie.

For Sale—Some slightly used debaters, not afflicted with brain fag; will consider any arrangements—singles, doubles or foursomes. Wearied Miss Kaderli.

Wanted—A movie contract as a double for Joan Davis because of the unusual ability in leg slinging. Demonstrations given every day. Billy Jean Flannery.

Wanted—A special secretary to issue excuse slips for J. V. Florey and Eleanor Rhea Lebus. Must be unusually active. Miss McLaurin.

Found—One perfectly quiet day in L. H. S. March 15, Mr. Speight, Mrs. Rosson and the Student Council were gone.

Wanted to Lease—Home for old maids. Must have no room for cats, only parrots. Try to come to terms with Evelyn Bivins, Vera Gray, Mary Julia Reinberger, and Pauline Langhorne.

Lost—Thousands of coat hangers. When last seen were holding clothes in closets. Disappeared mysteriously, but garments left dumped on floor. Whereabouts sought by L. H. S. mothers.

Jocelyn! You look like the cat that swallowed the canary.

Anyone knowing to whom these belong please report it to the annual staff:

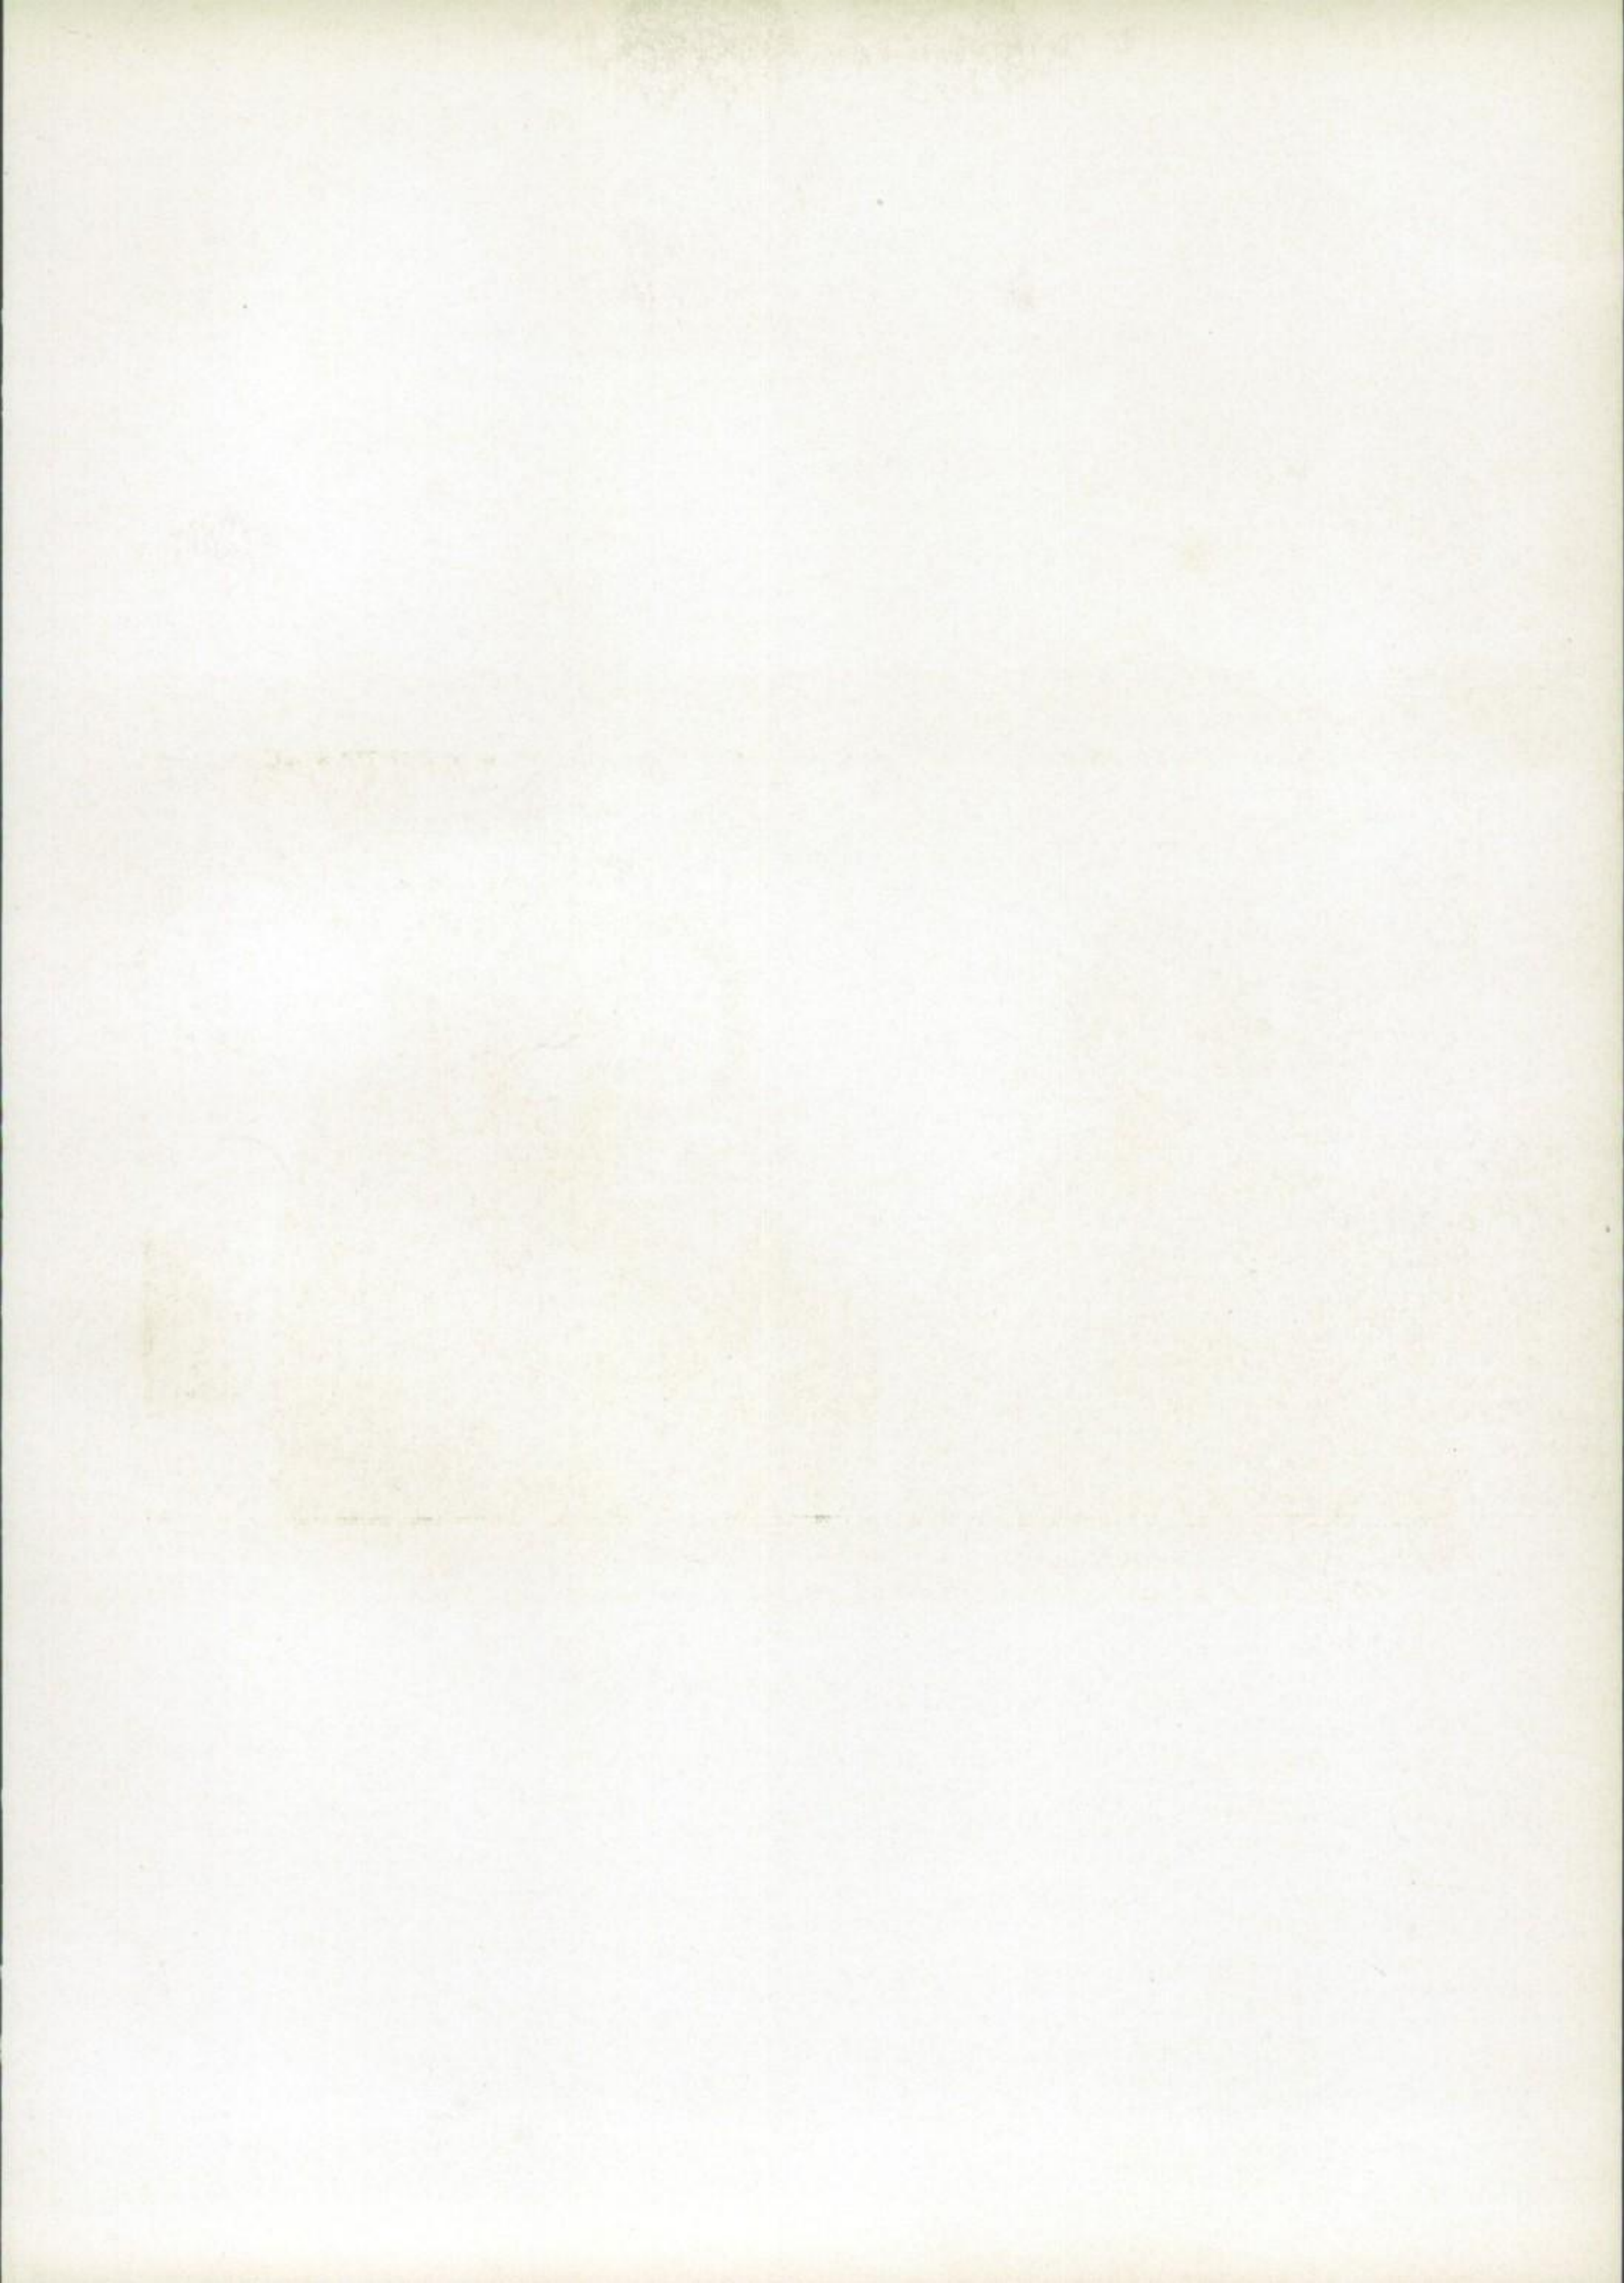

My, Billie Jean, you look determined.

May the best man win.

Pat, in one of her off moments.

Maybe this is out of place, but we like the idea.

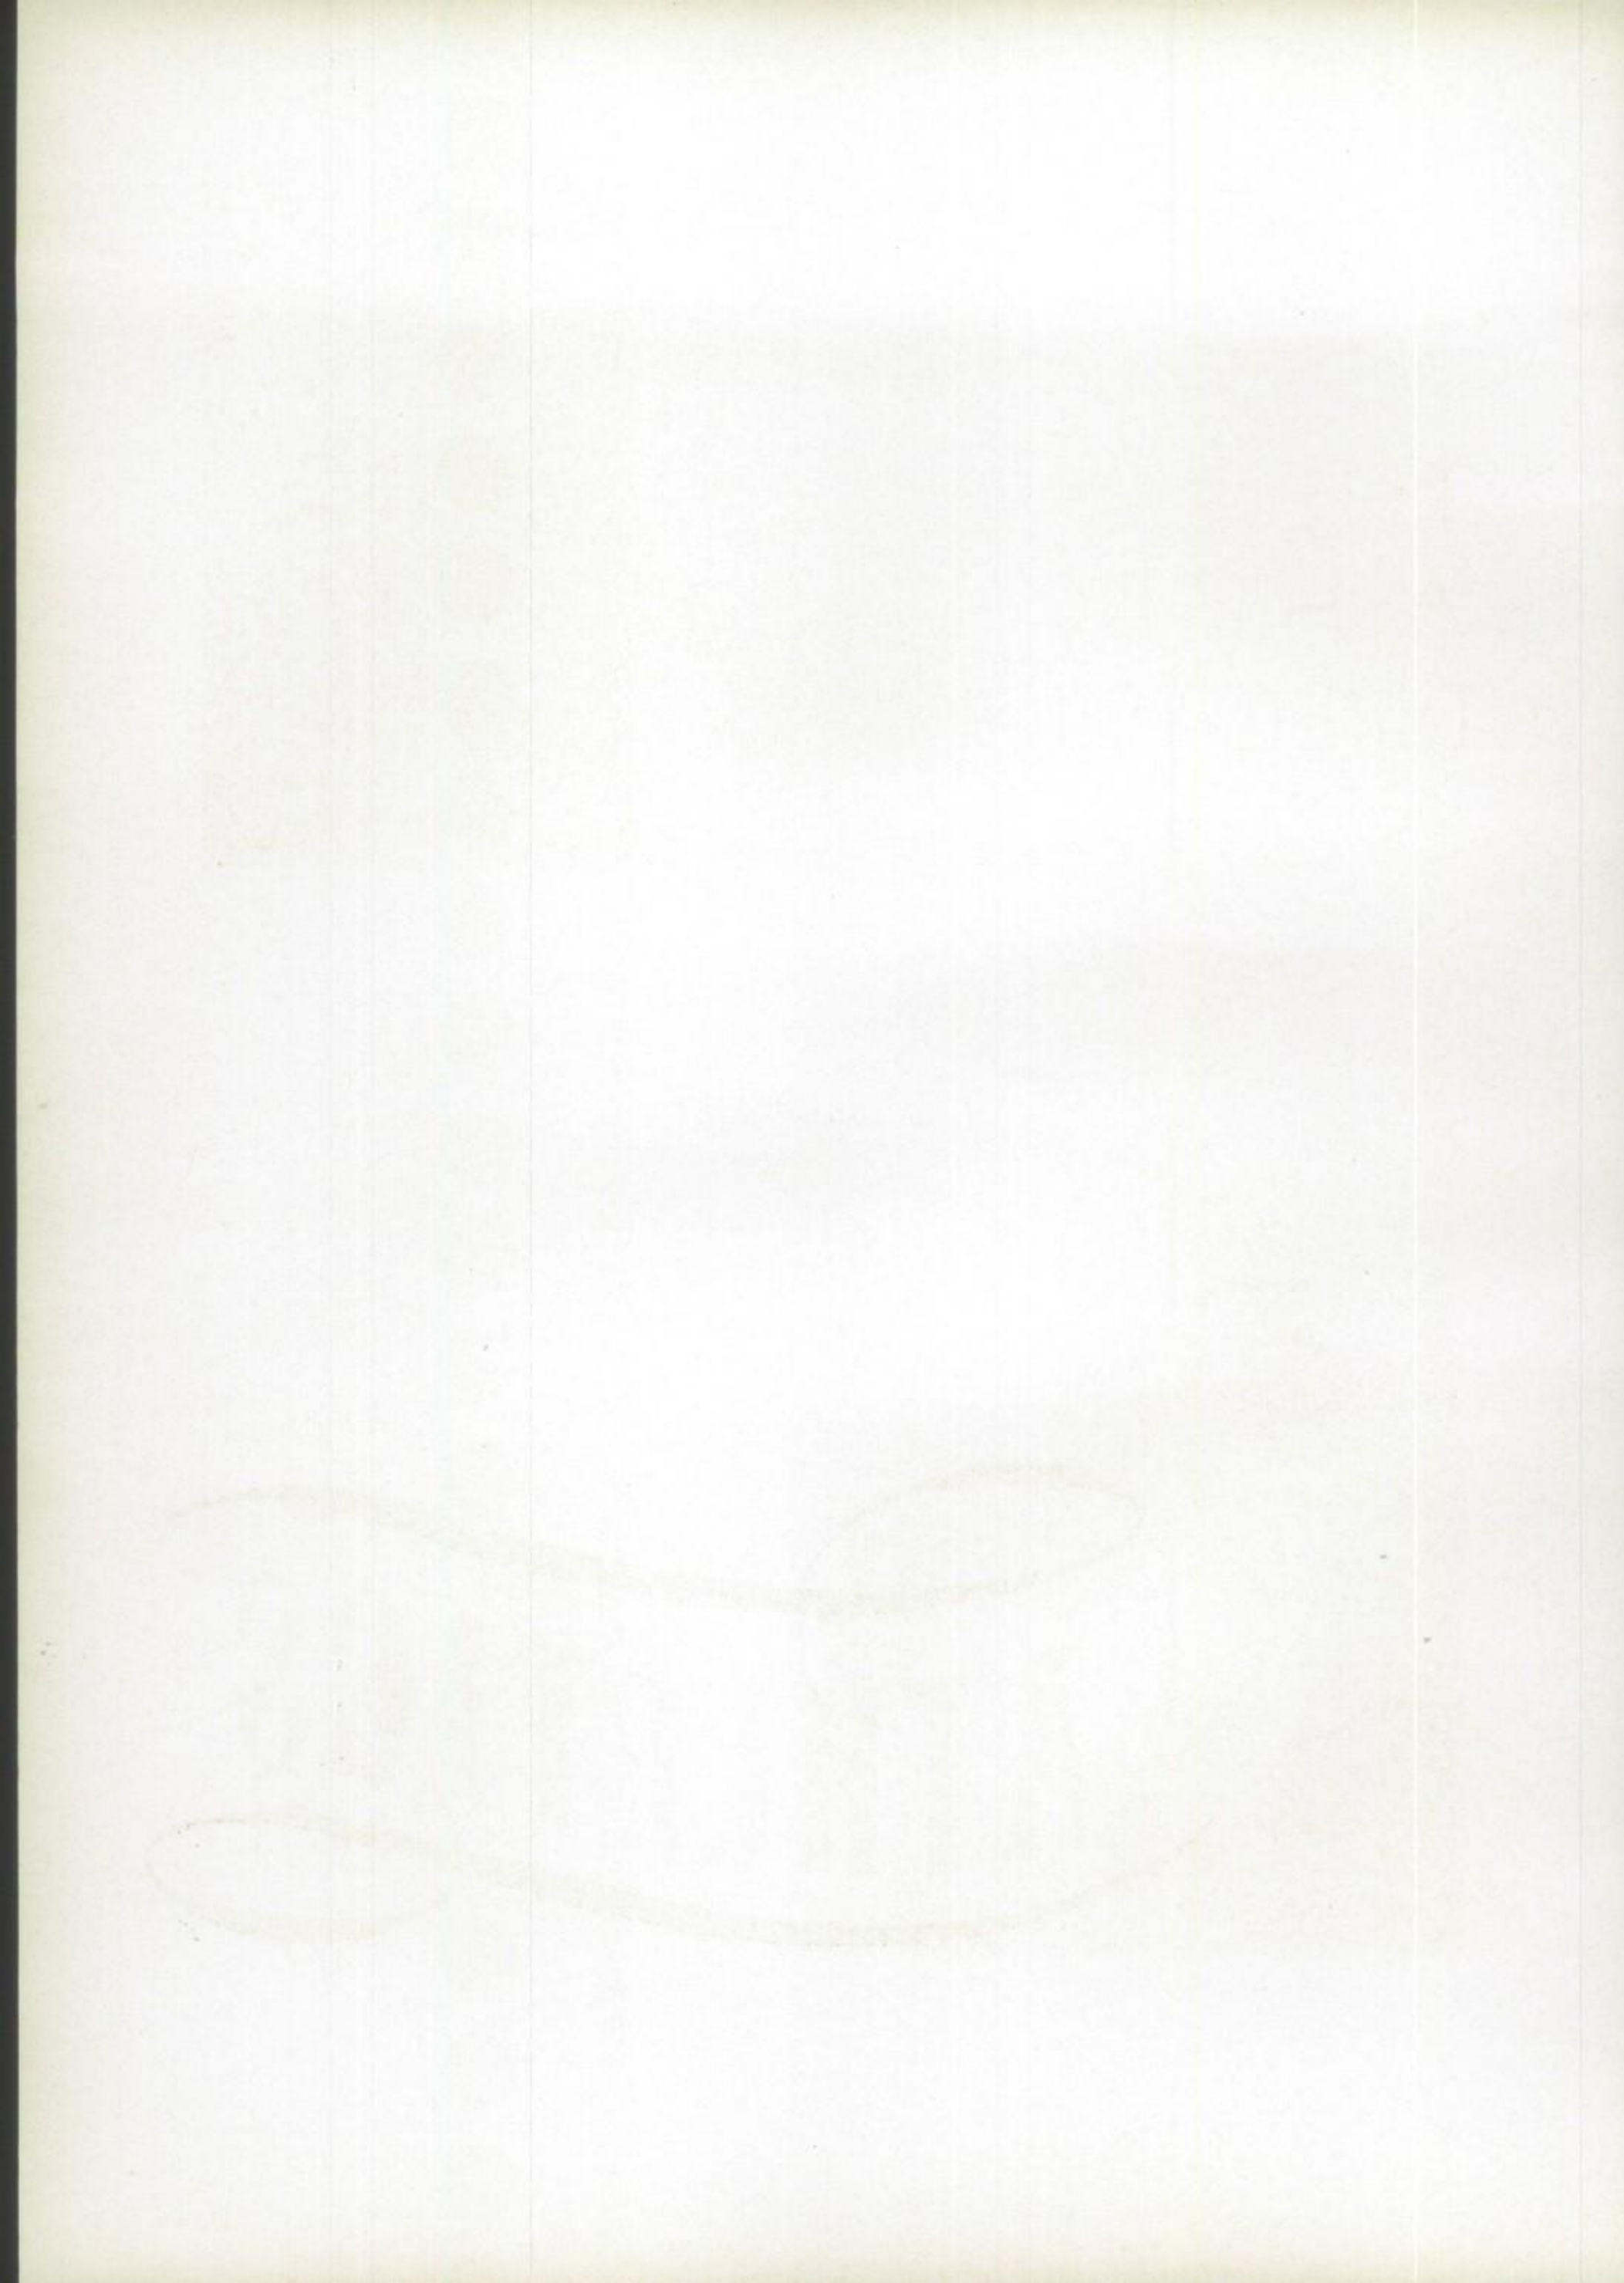

Maybe Miss Curran's camera shy.

Milton Pearson and Berneil Larson—Junior Boys Doubles.

CLASS DREAMS

From the days of their trials and tribulations as lowly Sophomores, the Seniors have dreamed of graduation. A cap and a gown, symbols of their ideals, seemed like a castle in the air—desirable but unobtainable—but they knew deep in their hearts that the day would come when, filled with all the joy, hope, and triumph of a victorious martyr, they would walk up the aisle to receive just a piece of paper that means "the world is ready to receive 'John Doe'."

The Juniors are the ones to be pitied, for theirs is the hardest of all fights. They take knocks like true veterans and go unflinchingly along their way. Joy and despair reign alternately in their world. Caught in the middle of their career—for truly school is a career—they must be ever on the alert for the pitfalls of a designing conscience.

A new school, queer ideals, queerer people, and new studies are just a few of the nightmares that disturb the sleep of the unsuspecting, mischievous, though innocent, Sophomores. They are embarking in a flimsy boat upon a high sea that broods many a storm, but they enter their journey with light hearts and heads, all too eager to grapple with Life, Love and Eternity.

DOPEY DEFINITIONS

Puncture—A hissing sound, followed by profanity.

A Careful Driver—One who can wear out a car without the help of a locomotive.

A Dirty Yarn—A ball of twine in the mud.

* * * *

Miss Freeman: "What food article brings the weight down?"

Dorothy Chaffin: "A banana peel."

* * * *

Ralph McKnight: "Will you have a little shrimp?"

Suzanne Thurman: "Oh! This is so sudden . . ."

* * * *

Miss Temple: "What are nitrates?"

Kenneth Ford: "They're cheaper than day rates."

* * * *

Floyd: "What do you call a man who drives a car?"

J. V.: "It all depends on how close he comes to me."

* * * *

NUTTY QUESTION NO. 10,097 $\frac{1}{4}$

Que: "Why is a can of tomatoes like a white collar?"

Ans: "Because neither of them can ride a bicycle."

HARD TO TAKE

An eminent psychiatrist swears he overheard this conversation on the subway:

"Ya' like t' read?"

"Ye'h."

"Wha'cha like t' read?"

"Oh, Lil' Orphannie, Popeye' n' Flash Gordon."

"Ya' like O. Henry?"

"Naw, de nuts git in me teeth."

WHEN YOU AND I WERE YOUNG

Little Harp! How you have changed!
 Behold! our football hero—Scot!
 Say! Ernestine aren't you the classy one!
 Harp—Our dignified editor.
 Whoops! how did you get in here?
 Say, Jo Ann, that sure is a tricky hat!

FOO AND STUFF

Ask me no questions I'll tell you no foo!!

To foo or not to foo that is the question!

Give me liberty or give me foo!

What this country needs is foo!

A foo a day keeps the doctor away!

There's no foo like an old foo!

Home sweet foo!

There's no place like foo!

A foo saved is a foo earned!

Alls foo that ends well!

Too foo sweetheart aloha!

Yah! Yah! Yah! says the foo!

Ship afoo! ship afoo!

It's better to be a foo than nothing at all!

Did you eer see a foo walking?

Ashes to ashes—dust to dust—if Trig won't get us Spanish must.

THE SNOWMAN

LeBus gets plastered (oops) while Polly gloats beneath her hood.

Florey, that lady-killer, looks on while Cordtsy eats the snow.

When the snow came Longview lads and lasses got a big kick out of sledding, snowballing, etc.

Cookie wards off snowballs with white mittens.
